

GPS Treasure Hunt

- 1) The bottles are filled every day. We don't even need to pay. I came along to quench my _____. (Take the first letter)
- 2) Everyone likes to come and play. Why not stay and slip down the _____? (Take the first letter)
- 3) Would you vote for this man? The middle letter is what you need before you succeed! _____
- 4) Look on the door. It's the fourth word you seek. Use the first letter. Clue: One of these comes in handy on an evening survey. _____
- 5) L=9m looks like an equation! But it's the word you need. Use the second letter. _____
- 6) You like to call to keep in touch and a T-mobile poster shows you (telegraph pole will help). It's the second word on the top right corner and the second letter is what you need. _____
- 7) 1929 was a great year for architecture. What is the second letter accompanying this date? _____
- 8) This bin is the one you put your bottles and cans. The first letter of this colour is _____
- 9) This house could do with some repairs. But first take time to stand and stare. The name sounds weird but don't be filled with fear. It's the last letter you need. _____
- 10) At the green door you must stand and face to the right. The letter is in clear sight! _____
- 11) Look in the window. You will see a house for sale for you or me. There is also a car on the sign. What is the first letter of the make? _____
- 12) Stand and look at the school of spire, you will get the word you desire. Our friends, the storks, have made it their own but what is the first letter of their home? _____
- 13) Harness the power of the sun so our electronics can run. This type of power is called _____. (You need the second to the last letter to add to the puzzle)
- 14) Learn to point your house in the traditional way and find out the designs to which they say nay! This Romanian trust for architecture helps but what is the first letter of their name? _____
- 15) Come to here for cake as a treat. This is the place to come to _____. (Use the first letter)
- 16) Traditional crafts for all to see. Honey and jam to have with tea. The large letter on the sign is what you need. _____
- 17) This board informs you that for 5 Lei, you can visit Dracula's birth place. No need to pay money but the first letter you need, if this puzzle you want to complete. _____

Erasmus+

